Mr. William H. Brett
Director of the Mint
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Upon receipt of the last deliveries of the National Security Medal for which the United States Mint at Philadelphia prepared drawings, models and dies, I wish to express to you and to the individuals who participated in this work our very sincere appreciation for the fine results achieved. We have been much impressed by the cooperation extended by Mrs. Bieker, Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, and by various members of her staff. In particular, Mr. Paul Beckman, Mr. Gilroy Roberts, and Mr. Frank Gasparo have rendered invaluable service. Also Mr. Lewis Tidball, whose untimely death I bury with regret, was most helpful in solving the technical problems associated with production of the medal and its appendances. Mr. Alphonso Collins of your Washington office has been of great service in coordinating matters here.

The technical knowledge and artistic skills contributed by these individuals have brought into being a medal which has been highly complimented by all who have seen it. I will appreciate your tendering our thanks to them for the interest and consideration they have consistently extended during the course of this project.

Sincerely,
